WHO YOU ARE AT THE CORE

At your core, you are an ambitious, hard-working, disciplined, and entrepreneurial person who's constantly working to reach the next step of your evolution. You have big dreams of what you want to create in the world and nothing will stop you from achieving your vision.

As a practical Earth sign, Capricorn Suns feel a lot of responsibility to take care of their family and loved ones. They feel a strong sense of duty and they tend to act seriously, even as a child. You actually enjoy being responsible and taking charge! Capricorn is the CEO of the zodiac and they have a strong inner drive to achieve something substantial. You may see hard work as fun and even therapeutic. But this also makes you prone to taking on more work than necessary, which can leave you feeling resentful or angry! Especially if you feel like your work isn't appreciated or your needs aren't being met. With your Capricorn and Virgo placements, it's especially important for you to find a healthy outlet that helps you relax and recharge.

Capricorn is also ruled by Saturn, the planet of leadership. This gives you an unmistakable air of authority and makes it easy for you to lead a group of people. However, it can also make you aloof and unemotional, especially when it comes to relationships. You'll need to work extra hard on being more vulnerable and open in order to have a successful relationship.

On a soul-level, you're meant to be responsible and entrepreneurial in order to achieve your goals and reach the pinnacle of your field. Capricorns are the best at turning hard work into an empire! These people tend to be very successful, just because of the fact that they never stop trying to reach their goals.

You feel your best when things are put together, structured, and orderly. Whenever you feel out of balance in life, some simple planning and organizing may be just what you need to feel better!

ABOUT

The Sun represents who you were born to be—your character, your identity, and your core values & philosophies. It tells you what you are naturally good at and how you express yourself best. We all need to follow our Sun!

YOUR CHART

Sun in Capricorn in your
1st House of Identity &
Personality

WHERE YOU EXPRESS YOURSELF BEST

The house of your Sun is the area of life where you have natural talent, skill, and success. This is where your personality shines! Matters of this house are likely to become the center of your life.

Your Sun falls in the 1st House of Identity & Personality. When the most important planet lights up your identity, you can't help but to feel powerful, fiery, and radiant! The Sun bolsters your sense of self and makes you fiercely independent and self-determined. Bravery, willpower, physical strength, and a strong presence are all associated with this placement.

You're here to live a purpose-driven life and you express yourself best when you take independent action and create things for yourself. You should always be looking to try new things, take exciting risks, and pursue the things that light your inner fire. You're meant to be self-sufficient and self-reliant. Don't let yourself get boxed in—you should be fearless in putting yourself first and creating your own path, without apology.

But in order to find your purpose, the first step is to understand who you really are and what you actually care about. Your Sun mission is to get to know yourself inside and out. What are your fears, anxieties, and weaknesses? What are your unique strengths and superpowers? And how can you leverage both to reach the people who need your help?

If you're not sure, take a moment to reflect on your biggest life challenges to date. Then fast forward five, ten, fifteen years from now—what does your success story look like and how did those challenges help you get there? What would you say to someone who is going through the same thing as you? How would you use your experience to motivate others? People with the Sun in their 1st House are destined to be inspiring and empowering leaders. The Sun gives you natural leadership qualities and a dazzling aura that radiates when you make a big impact on the world.

Just make sure you are not overinflating your ego and pride, because the Sun can make you feel like the entire universe revolves around you! Overconfidence usually stems from insecurity or fear with this placement. Of course you will naturally go through periods of self-doubt, but a quick sweat session or inspiring pep talk may be all you need to find your mojo again.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NATURE

In astrology, the Moon reveals our emotional framework and greatest emotional needs. With your Moon in ambitious Aries, you are a fiery and energetic person who has an emotional need to assert yourself and take bold action. You're constantly on the move to try new things and blaze new trails with your fierce independence and innate sense of confidence.

As a dynamic Fire sign, your emotions are fiery, passionate, and loud. You have a blazing inner fire that feels things strongly and expresses it loudly for everyone to hear. One of your best qualities is you never hide how you really feel! Life can feel like a series of emergencies, but that's exactly what the ram needs to keep charging full steam ahead. Just make sure not to react too quickly and become angry, defensive, or confrontational. When you're feeling stressed, the best way to let off steam is to sweat it out through some good old sports and exercise.

Aries is ruled by Mars—the planet of action & sports—which gives you a fighting spirit and natural drive. You are an ambitious and determined person who is always ten steps ahead of the crowd! Leader. Pioneer. Trailblazer. Although you may be too aggressive at times, you show others how to be courageous and go after what they want. Aries also likes to live in the moment and make things happen here and now. This can help you move quickly and take decisive action, but it can also make you too impatient and impulsive. Instant gratification is fun but some things in life are worth the wait! Wisdom comes when you learn how to let go of the battle in order to win the war. At your best, you can channel this warrior energy to become an inspirational and empowering leader who fires people up by fearlessly sharing your passions.

In love, you need an adventure buddy who loves to explore, travel, and try new things. Someone with the enthusiasm and energy to keep up with your wild spirit, and someone who motivates you to work on becoming your best and brightest self!

ABOUT

The Moon represents your emotional nature—how you feel your emotions, how you express them, and how you impulsively react to things. It tells you what you need to feel safe, secure, and happy. The Moon is key to our self-care!

YOUR CHART

Moon in Aries in your 10th
House of Career &
Achievement

WHAT YOU NEED TO BE HAPPY

The house of your Moon tells you the area of life that makes you the happiest. Even if everything else in your life is going well—if you don't feel right in this area—then you're not likely to be happy in the long-term!

Your Moon rises in the 10th House of Career & Higher Calling, which says that you are highly motivated, driven, and ambitious person who has a deep longing to achieve something meaningful in the world. Something from childhood may have taught you the importance of finding success and status. You have big dreams for what you want to create in and nothing will stop you from achieving your vision.

Your heart is naturally drawn to your career and you have an emotional need to be recognized by society for your efforts. There is a greater plan at play here and it is important for you to connect to your purpose. What do you care about? What are your unique strengths and superpowers? And what is the legacy you want to leave behind in the world? You must set heart-felt goals that feel fun and fulfilling to you, because you can have a tendency to follow the “safe” or “traditional” route. Success will find you naturally when you are being your true self! And with the Moon in Leo, you work best when you are having fun and being playful.

The Moon is a maternal figure and when it is in the 10th House, it says you are meant to take on a nurturing role in your career. You may excel in fields where you are taking care of people, such as teaching, counseling, or medicine. You have the potential to bring healing to the world. The Moon is also highly creative and you can excel in a creative or artistic field. But just like the Moon waxes and wanes, your professional goals are constantly in flux as well. Don't worry about having it all figured out yet—you're supposed to follow your heart when it comes to your career!

You're the happiest when you feel organized, put-together, and on top of things—putting your boss hat on helps you get into character and feel more confident about your potential. Being responsible is your version of self-care! Just watch out for a tendency to be too serious, because you can hold yourself to very high standards and beat yourself up when you don't meet expectations. Practicing mindfulness is key because any emotional stress will have an impact on your career!

YOUR PUBLIC PERSONA

The Rising sign tells you how you show up in the world and make a public impression. As a Taurus Rising, you exude a sense of calm, balance, & stability. You have a soothing presence that helps people feel at ease and you sparkle with your creative eye and penchant for beauty!

As grounded Earth sign, you approach life with a practical & realistic mindset and you like to work on things in a logical, step-by-step way. Setting goals, planning things out, and having a roadmap can help you feel confident and clear-headed. You may also feel more productive when you write things down on paper. You tend to approach life in a methodical way and you always need to go at your own pace for you to be happy & productive. Sometimes, you can be a bit too cautious though. Don't let your stubborn and guarded side get in the way of exciting opportunities and risks!

Taurus is ruled by Venus, the planet of love & beauty, which gives you impeccable taste and a keen eye for design. You are naturally drawn to things that are stylish & attractive and you feel better when you surround yourself with beauty. Your earthy nature is also drawn to things that are practical and useful—especially if they're also well-designed! Just watch out for a tendency to overindulge in the finer things. A Taurus Rising's home is not complete without candles, colors, and textures that ignite your five senses and make you feel exquisitely in-tune with the world. You are a master at sensing things on a physical level and you can be highly skilled in tactile activities like cooking (taste), gardening (touch), and singing (sound).

At your best, you are an unwavering rock who provides a sense of calm and peace to others. What people really notice is your dependability. Sturdy Taurus always shows up for the people they love and you are one of the most loyal signs of the zodiac. You also have an incredible drive and work ethic, especially when you set your sights onto something. Your personal brand can be described as a builder, support system, and creative. The whole package comes together in a glittering bow as Venus graces you with attractiveness & elegant beauty!

ABOUT

The Rising sign represents your meet-and-greet personality—how you act in front of people and interact with the world. It's the side of you that gets shown to the public (whereas the Moon is the side that we keep private!)

YOUR CHART

Taurus Rising

HOW IT ALL WORKS TOGETHER

The logical side of you is (Taurus Sun) nurturing and compassionate.
The emotional, reactionary side of you is (Aries Moon) passionate and enthusiastic.
What you project to the world is (Aquarius Rising) independence & authenticity.

You are here to (Sun) build a comfortable and stable lifestyle, but you do it best in a (Rising) weird and unconventional way. You are called on to (Rising) follow your quirky interests and go against the mainstream, but that can sometimes clash with your (Sun) security-driven mindset. Your challenge is to find a balance between being yourself & being comfortable.

You feel things in a (Moon) fiery and passionate way, but it might be difficult for you to express your emotions because there is a side of you that values being (Rising) calm, cool and detached. You may see emotions as a (Rising) sign of weakness. It's important to let yourself feel things while also making time to (Sun) pamper yourself!

YOUR NATURAL STRENGTHS

WHAT YOUR MIND IS ON

The house of your Mercury tells you what you like to think about and what your mind naturally gravitates towards.

Your Mercury is in the 3rd House of Communication & Education. Mercury is the ruler of our intellect so when it falls in the 3rd House, it gives you a quick and perceptive mind that can process information easily. These people tend to do really well at school, although you might also feel like you are too smart for school! You may be a fast talker as well. There is power in your words and ideas and you are here to share an important message with the world. You can be very good at any communications-related field, such as speaking, writing, blogging, and teaching. It can even be visual mediums like graphic design, illustration, film, and even music. You may also do well in fields like marketing, public relations, and social media.

WHAT YOU LOVE & VALUE

The house of your Venus tells you what you love and truly desire in life. This is also where you receive natural abundance!

Your Venus is in the 4th House of Home, Family, & Long-Term Security, which says that you love to be around people who fill you with a deep sense of belonging. For you, home is truly where the heart is! You connect to people best on an emotional level and you need to feel emotionally invested in something in order to be passionate about it. On a practical level, you can be particularly skilled in the areas of family, home, and homeland—things like family counseling, real estate, interior decorating, government affairs, ancestral studies, or women's issues. You can also be very creative and artistic, especially in beauty-oriented fields. Whatever the field, you do best in a job that feel secure and stable. You may love working from home as well!

WHAT YOU'RE MOTIVATED BY

The house of your Mars tells you what fires you up and motivates you to take action. This is where you find passion!

Your Mars is in the 6th House of Work, Health, & Daily Routine, which says that you find the most motivation in your daily work and how you help others. This is the house of service and it gives you a strong sense of duty. You are incredibly productive and hard-working, but there may also be a tendency to focus too much on work. Watch out for being a workaholic! Mars gives you a lot of physical energy & vigor and you can be particularly skilled in the area of health and wellness, because you are naturally in-tune with your body and can help others feel the same. Exercise, diet, nutrition, and the medical field are great areas to consider, along with more holistic practices like yoga and meditation. You can make a great gym trainer or personal coach!

WHAT MAKES YOU UNIQUE

WAXING GIBBOUS MOON

You were born under a Waxing Gibbous moon, which gives you a lot of energy and makes you very ambitious, focused, and strong-minded. Your strength lies in your ability to be independent and self-reliant, but there may also be a tendency to be too self-serving and impatient. Your creativity comes out the most when you are paving the way for others to follow!

SUN CONJUNCT NEPTUNE

Your Sun aligns with Neptune. Although you are an ambitious, professional, and business-minded Capricorn Sun, there is also a side of you that is highly intuitive, romantic, and creative with this Neptune alignment. Although you still feel your best when you are working hard and achieving your goals, you are not as motivated by status & success as the average Capricorn Sun. You understand that there is more to life than the material world, and you are determined to find meaning in something greater. At your best, you will build a meaningful organization or movement that helps people feel nourished and taken care of. You can be highly creative and artistic as well. You may have hidden talents in the areas of acting, writing, music, or photography!

JUPITER CONJUNCT CHIRON

Your Jupiter aligns with Chiron in the 5th House of Fun & Creativity. You feel the most excited and inspired when you are creating something new from your own ideas, but you can also have a lot of self-doubt and fear around your work as well. Working through mental blockers or self-sabotaging beliefs will help you soar creatively!

MARS & JUPITER RETROGRADE

You were born with Mars and Jupiter in retrograde, which says that you may experience confusion around what you're passionate about and what truly brings you joy in life. You may find it difficult to choose a major or field of study, because you're not really sure what you're actually good at! Part of your life challenge is to find the courage to try many different fields and activities, even if it scares you. Taking risks and going out of your comfort zone will bring you new opportunities & blessings that you couldn't have even dreamed of.
